Kerikeri High School is a successful and dynamic Year Seven to Thirteen state co-educational school with a rapidly increasing roll of over 1500 students. Our school has a proud academic tradition. We place a lot of emphasis on the "busy kids are happy kids" philosophy and consequently have an exceptionally full sporting and cultural calendar. We take pride also in the bi-cultural nature of our school and over a third of our students are Maori. Our education outside the classroom programme is extensive, taking full advantage of our location in the Bay of Islands.
