GENERAL

- Monday
This week we celebrate Matariki. The reappearance of Matariki in the sky signals the Māori New Year, a time for reflection, remembering ancestors, celebrating the present, and planning for the future.
- Students who have been attending SAVE this term, we have a new date of next Thursday the 19th for our planting at Te Amo Pūtoro. Anyone who has returned a permission slip please pick up a confirmation letter from DVC1 of the new date/ time during interval today. If you have been part of SAVE this term and would like to come there are a few more seats, so pop into DVC1 to collect a new permission letter then too.
- Congratulations to Lilly Van Miert, please see Miss Williams to get your prize.
