IMPORTANT MESSAGES

Pink Shirt Day, was formed in Canada in 2007. Two students taking a stand against bullying after a Year 10 student was threatened and harassed for wearing a pink polo shirt, where the students bought and distributed pink shirts for their classmates to wear the following day in support.

On Friday we will be supporting Pink Shirt Day. Non-uniform can only be worn if you wear a pink shirt - otherwise you can accessorise your uniform with pink. There are heaps of competitions, a bake sale, face painting and photos - LET'S STAND AGAINST bullying and show MANAAKITANGA.
