Amanda Wharton Room Changes:
Monday 20 July - Week 1
P4: ENG4
- SAVE - Cornerstone activities are counted each term so if you wanted to get involved the start of the term is a great time! This week for juniors we are looking at pollinators and why they are important, and making some flower bombs. Senior SAVE has Anouk from CBEC coming in to talk about recycled clothing and get feedback about local op shops and what they could stock and SAVE for blokes are looking at native trees and how we can take care of them. Remember: Year 7's are on Mondays, Seniors are Tuesdays, Yr 8-10 Wednesdays, Interact Thursdays and SAVE for Blokes are Friday lunch times.
- The SAVE BAKE SALE is on this Thursday! SAVE students please bring baking to donate, students please bring cash for some yummy treats!

JUNIORS

- Room Changes:
Period 2 7GDN to whare
Period 3 7ADM to whare
Period 4 7LUD to whare

SENIORS

- Ahoy mateys! Year 11's who expressed interest in a weeklong voyage with the New Zealand Sailing Trust at the end of last term, Meet Mr Willis in BES6 at the start of lunchtime today. If you did not make last terms meeting and are interested, come along today.

CULTURAL

- Music Tuition registration is open this week for Year 7 and 8 and Option Music students wishing to learn a musical instrument for the rest of the year. Either see Miss Thomson or Mrs McGlinchey in class or come to MUS1 at the end of this formtime. Registrations close this Friday and lessons will start next week.

If you have already signed up for Music lessons from the start of the year, this continues as normal. Reminder that the timetable is on Mus windows, and your group name in on the window too. If you are unsure of your group or when your lesson is please also come to MUS1 at the end of this formtime to be prepared for your lesson this week.

SPORTS

- Any Netball umpires not available this Saturday must tell Jodie by interval Tuesday. If you do not then you will be responsible for finding own replacement if rostered on.
- Can all Te Ara members and 1st XV Rugby players go to the gym for tutorial tomorrow. Important meeting all must attend.

Recovery session will be on in the gym today.
