IMPORTANT MESSAGES

Kia Manawanui – Always Proud. Today’s WAKA message is short and sweet – Always make your best effort, make safe and sensible decisions, and be kind and thoughtful towards others - kia manawanui.

NCEA Exams have now started for our Year 11 – 13 Students. These are very important for our Senior Students, and they need your support to make them as successful as possible. Exams run from 9:30am – 12:30pm and 2:00 – 5:00pm, and are mostly in the Gym and Auditorium, but also in BES10 some days. Can you please support our senior students by staying away from these areas at interval, and in between classes. This includes at the back of the gym. Thank you.

Exams on today are

In the morning: L1 Chemistry, L2 Business Studies

In the afternoon: L3 Economics

GENERAL

- A student has lost a clear plastic 15cm ruler with red writing across it, the student has had the ruler for nearly 10 years and would like it back. If you happen to have it please bring it in to the student centre.
