Newsletter No. 7, 28 September 2018

Tēnā koutou katoa e te whānau,
Ngā mihi, mahana ki a koutou o te tau hou.
Nau mai haere mai ki tā tātou kura, Te Kura
Tuarua o te Kerikeri.

It has been a big term with many highlights for our students and staff and a lot of hard work. The year has flown by and now we are facing only 14 school days left for our Seniors before Prizegiving on Friday 2 November so it is all systems go to support our students through their last Internals and support their preparation for Externals.

Our senior students go on Study Leave on Monday 5 November and the NCEA Examinations begin with Level One Social Studies on Wednesday 7 November at 9.30am.

However, although most students will be on Study Leave we will be calling in senior students who are in danger of not completing or not achieving to ensure that they get the best outcomes possible. Thank you all for your support at this critical time.

Every day counts, during the school week, at the weekends and in the holidays. Attendance, focus and hard work make all the difference.

There is plenty of challenge too for our junior students and a full calendar of our “busy kids are happy kids” activities for all.

TE PUNA WAIORA

Our Student Centre, Te Puna Waiora is almost completed. We have really appreciated everyone's patience and understanding as the main Reception entrance became the Courier door and finding the Student Centre became a mission.

Jo Davis and Kate Liddington in the Student Centre, Lorraine Noorwalla our Deputy Principals' Secretary, our Deputy Principals, Deans and Guidance Counsellors have been in temporary spaces all over the school and have worked wonderfully well under real difficulties.

We also appreciate the International Department enabling their headquarters to become the Student Centre.

We are Blessing Te Puna Waiora at lunchtime on the last day of term and we will be moving in, in waves, over the two weeks of the school break and in the first week of Term Four.

The official Opening is Wednesday 17 October at 5.00pm and you are most welcome.
